

Rules & conditions

EASL offers 2 mentorships per year.

The mentor/mentee relationship is to be based on a specific objective (e.g. launching a research project, acquiring new clinical skills or getting some data into publication...)

EASL will pay for 1 visit up to two weeks (flight & university / 3* accommodation) for the mentee to visit the mentor. EASL will also pay for the mentor and mentee to attend The International Liver Congress™ in April (flight, accommodation & registration) where they can meet and present their collaboration to EASL delegates. (Other meetings can be arranged as required but at the mentor's and mentee's own expense).

Duration of each programme: 12 months - no renewal is possible.

Mentees will be entitled to collaborate with one of the above-stated mentors depending on their specialty area and field of interest. Only 1 mentor per mentee and vice versa.

Conditions for Mentees

- Mentees should be under the age of 35 at the time of application and/or still in training.
- Applicant must be a registered EASL member.
- Applicant must not hold a permanent position.
- Home institution must be European and located in a different European country from the mentor's institution. No restriction on the applicant's nationality.
- Mentees and mentors will be notified by early January.
- The mentors and mentees will be requested to attend The International Liver Congress™ in April. Both parties will take part in the Young Investigators' Forum.

Application

- All applications will be reviewed by the scientific committee and then sent for approval to the mentors Mentorships to begin (at the latest) by January of the following year
- The mentor-mentee relationship should last for 1 year. Extended programmes cannot be requested
- or accepted All applications to be received in English

How to apply

Online applications should be sent to the EASL Office before 30 November

each year. During the process you will need to upload:

- your personal details - complete CV
- a letter detailing your interest in the mentorship program and stating the objective(s) which you, the mentee, would like to achieve
- a letter of recommendation from a former or current supervisor

Questions regarding EASL Mentorship should be sent to Mentorship@easloffice.eu