

USE OF EASL NAME AND LOGO

- The association's insignia (logo) and name is a registered trademark and the property of EASL. They cannot be used in any way, for any purpose or at any time (including, but not limited to announcements, invitations, emails, web publications, etc.) without the expressed written permission of EASL.
- The insignia can only be used as designated and must be approved by EASL. Any use of the EASL brand name should be approved by the EASL Office. A copy or sample of any such material produced by affiliate groups for public relations or public information must be sent to the EASL Office for informational purposes.

Please contact the EASL Office easloffice@easloffice.eu with any questions you may have regarding the EASL brand and logo.