

Challenges in the treatment of hepatocellular carcinoma

Madrid, Spain

Date: 25-26 June 2027

DAY 1 – 25 JUNE MORNING

8.30h Registration (30 min)

9.00h Welcome and aims of the school (Dr. B. Sangro) (15 min)

Making the most of current therapies

9.15h Liver transplantation in HCC: expanding the criteria in the era of immunotherapy (Dr. J Ignacio Herrero + Dr.A Colon) (15 min)

9.35h Adjuvant and neoadjuvant therapy to improve surgical outcomes (Dr. J.M. Argemí) (15 min)

9.55h SIRT: when and how (Dra. M. Iñárraegui, Dr. A. Alonso, Dra. L. Sancho) (15 min)

10.15h Treating the patient with impaired liver function (Dra. D. D'Avola) (15 min)

10.30-11.00 Coffee break

Challenges of immunotherapies along the patient journey

11.00h Assessing tumor response and progression (Dr. Carmelo Palacios) (15 min)

11.20h Managing atypical patterns and residual disease (Dra P. Sangro) (15 min)

11.40h Managing toxicities (Dr. M. de la Torre) (15 min)

12.00h State of the art lecture 1: AI and the CUSE framework in clinical decision making (Dr. M. Reig) (30 min)

12.30-14.30h Lunch break

DAY-1 25 JUNE - AFTERNOON

Small group's sessions.

15.00h 5 clinical cases will be assigned to each group by tutors with 5 questions to be answered (15 min)

15.15-17.45h In small groups students will discuss the clinical case and prepare a 3-slides presentation answering the 5 questions to be shown and discussed the day after in plenary session.

19.30h Dinner

DAY 2- 26 JUNE - MORNING

Case presentation by students and discussion with wrap-up by tutors (faculty)

9.00h Case 1 (20 min)

9.20h Case 2 (20 min)

9.40h Case 3 (20 min)

09.45-10.15 Coffee break

10.15h Case 4 (20 min)

10.35h Case 5 (20 min)

11.00h State of the art lecture: Evolving therapies in HCC (Dr. B. Sangro) (30 min)

11.30h Q&A session (15 min)

11.45-12.15h Feed back, prizes and final conclusions (Dr. B. Sangro) (30 min)

12.30 Lunch and return journey